

Regional Offices

ICD-10 Training Capacity ICD-10 Mortality Coding

Regional Office	Country	Courses Given 1999-2001	Trainers Trained	Who provided the training	If training not provided by Regional Office (RO)staff, did RO provide resources to support the training	Training Materials Used	Courses Planned 2001-2002
AFRO	Zimbabwe	N/a	N/a	N/a	No	N/a	No course was planned, but funds are available to support 3 countries in collecting and analyzing their vital registration data using the ICD-10 methods. Countries will be supported in ICD-10 implementation
EURO	Denmark	There is no technical capacity for such training. However there were 2 courses in Moscow in 1997 and 1998 on implementation and coding for participants from 12 Russian speaking CIS countries.	No	No	No	N/a	There are intentions to use recently completed TENDON in Russian language to support training activities in central Asian countries and perhaps in Caucasus countries but no definite plans are made yet.

Regional Offices

ICD-10 Training Capacity ICD-10 Mortality Coding

Regional Office	Country	Courses Given 1999-2001	Trainers Trained	Who provided the training	If training not provided by Regional Office (RO)staff, did RO provide resources to support the training	Training Materials Used	Courses Planned 2001-2002
SEARO	India	5 ICD courses in Myanmar and Sri Lanka with 101 students. Students were also from Bangladesh, Bhutan, Nepal, Thailand, India, Indonesia and Maldines.	1 course with 21 students in Myanmar	Regional Office Staff, National Institute of Health Sciences (NHIS) Kalkutara, Sri Lanka, National Centre for Classifications in Health (NCCH, Brisbane, Australia	Yes	ICD-10 Student Work Book, ICD-10 Answer Book, ICD-10 (3 volumes), Tendon Package, Benefits of ICD-10 (video tape) and Australian Coding Benchmark Audit (ACBA)	One Intercountry training course on ICD-10 has been planned in 2002 for participants from countries of the South-East Asia Region
PAHO	Latin American and Caribbean	15 courses with 199 students in Guyana, Jamaica, Turks, Caicos, Grand Cayman, Chile, Spain, Argentina, Cuba, Ecuador, Guatemala, Nicaragua, Panama and Paraguay	50 students in Spain, 3 students in Cuba and 50 students in Mexico	Regional Office Staff, National Statistical Office in Argentina, CEVECE , Galicia Mortality Group (Spain) and Mexico ICD Group	Yes	The three volumes of the ICD-10; the TENDON, and a number of related material such as: Materials prepared by the Ministry of Health in Mexico; Materials	Training of new coders in the Cayman Islands, Bolivia, and Honduras. Refresher courses in Haiti, Turks and Caicos, and 10 other countries in the Region. ICD-10 coding hosted by Mexican Center

Regional Offices

ICD-10 Training Capacity

ICD-10 Mortality Coding

Regional Office	Country	Courses Given 1999-2001	Trainers Trained	Who provided the training	If training not provided by Regional Office (RO) staff, did RO provide resources to support the training	Training Materials Used	Courses Planned 2001-2002
						prepared by the Social Security Institute in Mexico (ICD Group); and materials prepared in Argentina. The INTERCOD--a computer assisted training program for implementation of the ICD-10--has also been pilot-tested.	for the Classification of Diseases 5-30 November, 2001.
WPRO	Philippines	2 intercountry training courses were held in May 1999 for the following countries: American Samoa, Cooks Islands, Fiji, Niue, Samoa, Solomon Islands,	2-5 in each country	Australia National Institute of Health and individual consultants	Yes	Training materials developed by WHO (SEARO) and Australia National Institute	Some more national training courses have been planned for developing

Regional Offices

ICD-10 Training Capacity

ICD-10 Mortality Coding

Regional Office	Country	Courses Given 1999-2001	Trainers Trained	Who provided the training	If training not provided by Regional Office (RO)staff, did RO provide resources to support the training	Training Materials Used	Courses Planned 2001-2002
		Tonga, Vanuatu, Guam, Kiribati, Marshall Islands, Federal States of Micronesia, Nauru, Northern mariana Islands, Palau with 30 students. National training courses were also held in Solomon Islands, Cooks Island and Papua New Guinea. The number of participants ranges from fewer than 10 to 25 in each course				of Health (WHO ICD C.C.)	countries